A Battle of Epic Proportions!

Issue number: 22 Friday 22nd March 2024

Five teams from Year 5

Greetings, sports fans and proud parents! Buckle up for the thrilling tale of the recent showdown between our valiant Year 5 warriors and the formidable team from Alleyns School!

With anticipation as high as a kite in a hurricane, our gallant youngsters took to the field prepared to defend our honour against the relentless onslaught of the Alleyns squad. The stakes were high, the sun was shining (it felt like summer), and our teams were ready to rumble!

In a display of sheer brilliance and determination, our boys' teams dominated the field, securing victory with scores of 3-1 and 7-2! Meanwhile, our fierce girls' teams battled with all their might, triumphing with a resounding 7-0 win in one match and putting up a valiant fight in the others, albeit narrowly missing out on victory.

But let's not just focus on the scores. What truly warmed our hearts was the sportsmanship and camaraderie displayed by both sides. Win or lose, our players showed respect and kindness to their opponents, proving that the true spirit of sportsmanship shines bright at Heber!

And let's not forget the post-match feast of delicious flapjacks, fueling both body and spirit after the exhilarating matches.

In the end, while we might celebrate the bonds of friendship forged on the field of play, it is worth facing facts that we won more matches and scored more goals than our local rivals! Hurray!

Go Heber!

A big thank you to Jon Powles, Sam Henley and special mention to Elizabeth (our admissions officer) who guided the girls team to their 7-0 win and is now officially top coach at Heber.

Heber Disco Divas!

After much anticipation from kids and parents alike, Disco Day arrived last Friday and out came the glitter, glow sticks, gummy bears and gowns. Hundreds of kids spread out over two discos – and boy did they know how to move. The DJ and dancemaster were put through their paces but want to come back next year after such great engagement. Those who weren't so keen on grooving could be found colouring, getting tattoos and hitting the tuck shop. There was something for everyone!

As well as the rush of sugar and adrenaline the kids enjoyed, the discos made over £1100 for the school which will go towards the renovation of the Middle Hall. A big thank you to all the children who attended, the grownups who were on taxi duty and a special mention to all those of you who helped set up, apply tattoos, organise merchandise, clean toilets, Hoover, link forms to payments, make signs for various areas, wash up plastic cups and so the list goes on. Any help at these events, no matter how much or little, is what makes these happen and is hugely appreciated. Thanks too to the front reception team who were ace helping with the administration of the discos; and Miss Rosenberg and Mrs Jefford for sticking around and amongst other useful things, using their big voices where required. 😊

Junior Road Watch

This week, Year 5 were joined by the Metropolitan Police for an afternoon! The children had the amazing opportunity to go inside the police van as well as 'play with' some police equipment, including metal detectors and riot gear! They also used a radar speed gun to track the speed of motorists. Cars that were speeding along Barry Road were pulled over by one of the PC's but had the option to avoid a speeding ticket if they answered some questions that the children asked!

This Week in Art

Year 6 continued experimenting with different ecological collage/sculptures based on our topic 'Sustain the Environment'. They created a mini version of a sustainable monument they suggested for the local area.

Year 2 were excited to make collaged models of their own personally designed building based on Hundertwasser and other architects that we have looked at this term.

Year 1 did a fantastic job with their painting skills demonstrating how they could make fruit look 'Old and New'. Can you guess which is which?

Thank you to those that have already entered and uploaded your children's artwork for the Children's Royal Academy Summer Show competition. They look fantastic! A reminder that there is still time to enter any of your child's artwork - the deadline is next Thursday 27 March at 5pm. Please just visit <https://youngartists.royalacademy.org.uk/> and follow the instructions for submission.

GB Athletics Competition

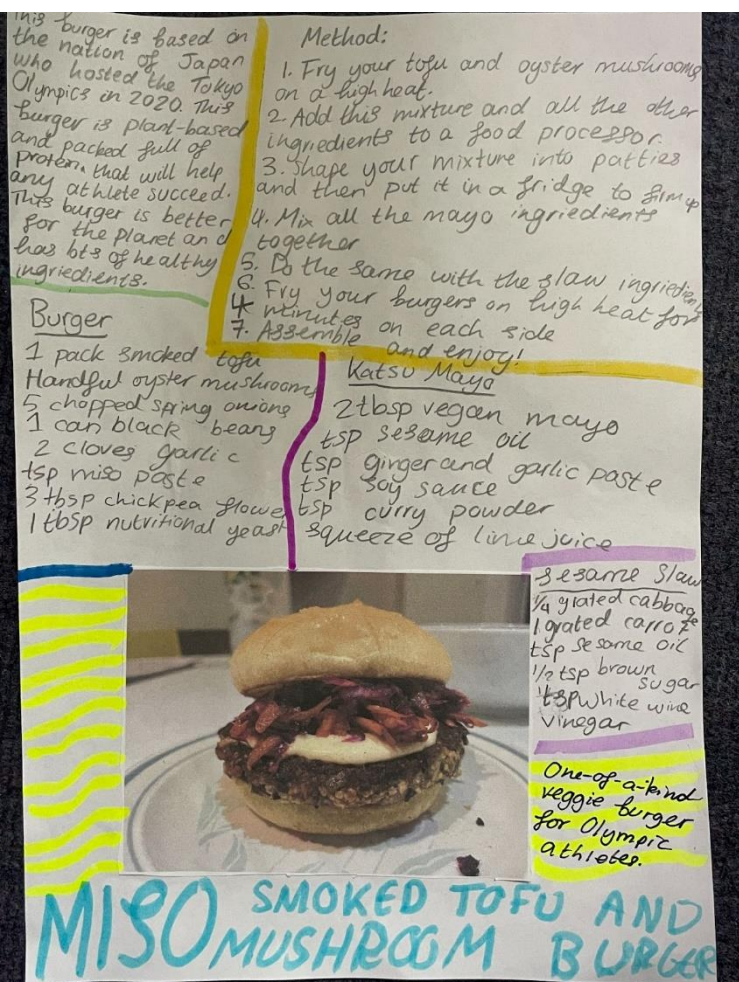

Eco committee have created their first recipe! We were invited to make a plant-based burger for a GB Athletics competition in celebration of the 2024 Olympics. We had to create a recipe based on a previous host nation of an Olympic Games and the recipe had to be plant-based in an effort to promote a plant-based diet which is better for the planet. We decided to base ours on Japan (who hosted Tokyo 2020), and it had to be flavourful and packed full of protein! Mr Gilyead cooked the burger and can confirm it was delicious!
